Now you can edit your Rental Movie Queue for movies that will be mailed to you and also select movies by either searching the movie drop down list or by typing in specific movie titles.

Customize your settings for e-mail notifications, disk preference, shipping preferences and in store exchanges.

The screenshot shows the 'Blockbuster Movie Pass Settings' page on the Dish website. The top navigation bar includes 'Movies', 'Television', 'Games', and 'Find a Blockbuster Location'. A search bar is present with the text 'Search for TV, movies and games'. The main content area is divided into three sections: 'Discs At Home', 'Titles In My Queue (0)', and 'Not Currently Available on Disc (0)'. The 'Discs At Home' section shows a table with columns for Title, Rating, Shipped, and Est. Arrival, and a message stating 'You currently do not have any items at home.' The 'Titles In My Queue' and 'Not Currently Available on Disc' sections also show empty tables with columns for Order, Title, Rating, Format, Categories, Availability, and Delete. The footer contains links for 'Movies', 'Television', 'Games', 'Find a Blockbuster Location', 'Settings', 'Queue', 'Help', 'Dish Online', and 'Dish Network'. It also includes 'Terms & Conditions' and 'Privacy Policy' links, and a copyright notice for Blockbuster L.L.C. and Dish Network L.L.C. The Rovi logo is visible in the bottom left corner.

The screenshot shows the 'Blockbuster Movie Pass Settings' page with various configuration options. The page title is 'Blockbuster Movie Pass Settings'. Below the title, there are three links: 'To view your billing and payment history visit dish.com/mybilling', 'To verify your address visit dish.com/myprofile', and 'To update your subscription visit dish.com/myprogramming and select the Main tab.' The main content area is titled 'SETTINGS' and is divided into several sections:

- Email Notifications: A section titled 'Your notifications will be sent to:' with a text input field. Below it, a section titled 'What type of notifications would you like to receive?' has several checked checkboxes: 'Titles Shipped', 'Titles Returned', 'Low/empty Queue', 'Online DVD Exchanged at Store', 'Store DVD Received at Store', and 'Online DVD Received at Store'. There are 'CANCEL' and 'SAVE' buttons.
- Email Format: A section with radio buttons for 'HTML' (selected) and 'Plain Text'. There are 'CANCEL' and 'SAVE' buttons.
- Disc Format Preferences: A section with radio buttons for 'Standard DVD' (selected) and 'Blu-ray'. A note says 'Remember: There is no extra charge for Blu-ray'. There are 'CANCEL' and 'SAVE' buttons.
- Shipping Preferences: A section with radio buttons for 'Speed' (selected) and 'Order'. The 'Speed' option is described as 'Send my next available movie as quickly as possible.' and the 'Order' option as 'I'd like to receive my movies in approximate Queue order.' There are 'CANCEL' and 'SAVE' buttons.
- In-Store Exchanges: A section titled 'What would you like us to do when you exchange a by-mail rental in the store for a title that is listed in your Queue?' with radio buttons for 'Always delete the title from my Queue.', 'Always keep the title in my Queue.', and 'Ask me each time.' (selected). There are 'CANCEL' and 'SAVE' buttons. A note says 'Remember: Some titles in our catalog have more than 1 version. You may wish to keep a title in your queue if it is a different version than the one you got at the store.'
- Your Preferred Locations: A section titled 'You do not have any preferred stores.' with a link 'Add Preferred Stores'. A note says 'Note: You may have up to 3 preferred stores.'

At the bottom right, there is a small text: 'Your username and password are managed through your DISH account.'
